Grief 411: Memorializing your Loved Ones

with Donna Clark of
"Heritage Makers"

Donna Clark is an independent consultant for Heritage Makers, and helps people create beautiful, heirloom quality storybooks which document the priceless relationships, events and experiences of life. The goal of Heritage Makers is to preserve family stories in a simple, fun and rewarding way. This is a process that can strengthen family, improve relationships and build children's self esteem. During this session, Donna will be sharing information about Heritage Makers and the creative and cathartic process of memorializing loved ones.

heritage makers

At Heritage Makers, our goal is to make preserving family stories simple, fun and rewarding. Donna Clark, as an independent consultant for Heritage Makers, helps people create beautiful, heirloom quality storybooks which document the priceless relationships, events and experiences of life. We also believe the company can strengthen family, improve relationships and build children's self esteem.

In addition to storybooks, Heritage Makers also creates a wide variety of products using your special photographs and decorative touches. These items include calendars, greeting cards, keepsake pendants and bracelets, posters, tiles and blocks that encapsulate the memories of your loved ones to be cherished for years to come.
